October Membership Meeting
October 13, 2014
2:00 p.m. ~ 3:00 p.m.

Our Guest Speaker this month is Chad Gillis who was an environmental and outdoor reporter for the Naples Daily News. He now covers similar issues for the News-Press. His topic will be "Voices of the Everglades" his eight month assignment focusing on the lives of Native Americans living in the Everglades. The presentation will hopefully include an appearance by LeRoy M. Osceola, the seventh generation son of the famed Chief Osceola. He lives in a traditional village and does not consider himself to be an American or Floridian. His presentation will be interesting and informative.

Due to the popularity of this event, it will be held at the Estero Recreation Center, Room 103A. Their address is 9200 Corkscrew Palms Blvd., off Corkscrew Road.

Our November Meeting will be at the Cottage where we typically hold our meetings.

We look forward to seeing everyone there!
