Estero Historical Society Announces New Coffee Table Book Book contains the History of Early Estero

Estero Fla- (October 10, 2019)- The Estero Historical Society ( EHS) announces availability of “Early Estero” a book written by Quentin Quesnell with input from local community members including residents who personally experienced much of the history depicted as it unfolded.

“We are very excited to look back at the early days of Estero and learn and understand how we came about and how far we have come. This coffee table book will be here for future generations to enjoy.” states Stephanie Miller, Estero Historical Society board member.

A reception will be held on Thursday, November 7 at 1:00 p.m.at the Estero Historical Society Cottage. The public is invited to attend.

Copies of the book are $10.00 each and can be purchased by calling 239.272.1911.

The book is also available at the headquarters of the Estero Historical Society. It is over a 100-year old pioneer home located near the Estero Community Park at 9200 Corkscrew Palms Blvd.
